Ir Secretary Jenkins is . - eakening in his support of O. A. Mitscher it is not apparent on the surface.

THE Vanderbilts are to connect Bos ton and San Francisco with a great transcontinental trunk line ted a colony of Syriaus who came from Damas; us and who are delighted with their location. THE Wichita Beacon breaks out:

"Great Scott! If M Kinley dies appoint an outsider census supervisor, who will want to be a d legate to the next national Republican convention?

THE appointment of territorial supervi or will either be made tomorrow o Monday, and the chances are accumulating that the indorsements of Gov. Barnes and Delegate F ynn will not bring in the catch.

Ir is said that Nate bily a, who was taken back to Missouri by the sheriff that state, was a member of the gang that robbed a Rock Island passenger train near Pond reek in 1894.

THERE will be no rivers of blood but many rivulets of froth, when that government inspector gets here and begins to "hake the dry bunes of the Oklahoma Republican factions and the rich diggin's begin to pan out.

ROBBERS called Mason Harmon, liv. ing a mile east of El Reno, to his door on the night of the 9th, and while one kept him covered with a sixshooter the other west through his pockets, but got nothing and left.

THE president is beginning to real ize that it is safer to take counsel of the commander-in-chief of the army than it is from his political secretary of war. Had he done this twe ve months ago the army scandals which cling around the administration would never have occurred.

GOV. BARNES, so the Kausas City Journal says, and the Journal is stalwart Republican authority, says that Secretary Jenkins' opposition to Geo. W. Outcelt grows out of the fact that the Secretary is putting up a fence to take him to the national Republican convention as a del gate.

Ir is said by those who have kept tab on the political outlook that Bryan will have 626 votes in the next Democratic national convention, with only 90 against bim These 90 will come from Deleware, New Jersey, New Hampshire, Vermont, Maine, Connectleut, Rhode Island and Maryland, The Bryan vo'e will no doubt be increased by the vote of several states not given in the table from which these figures are taken
